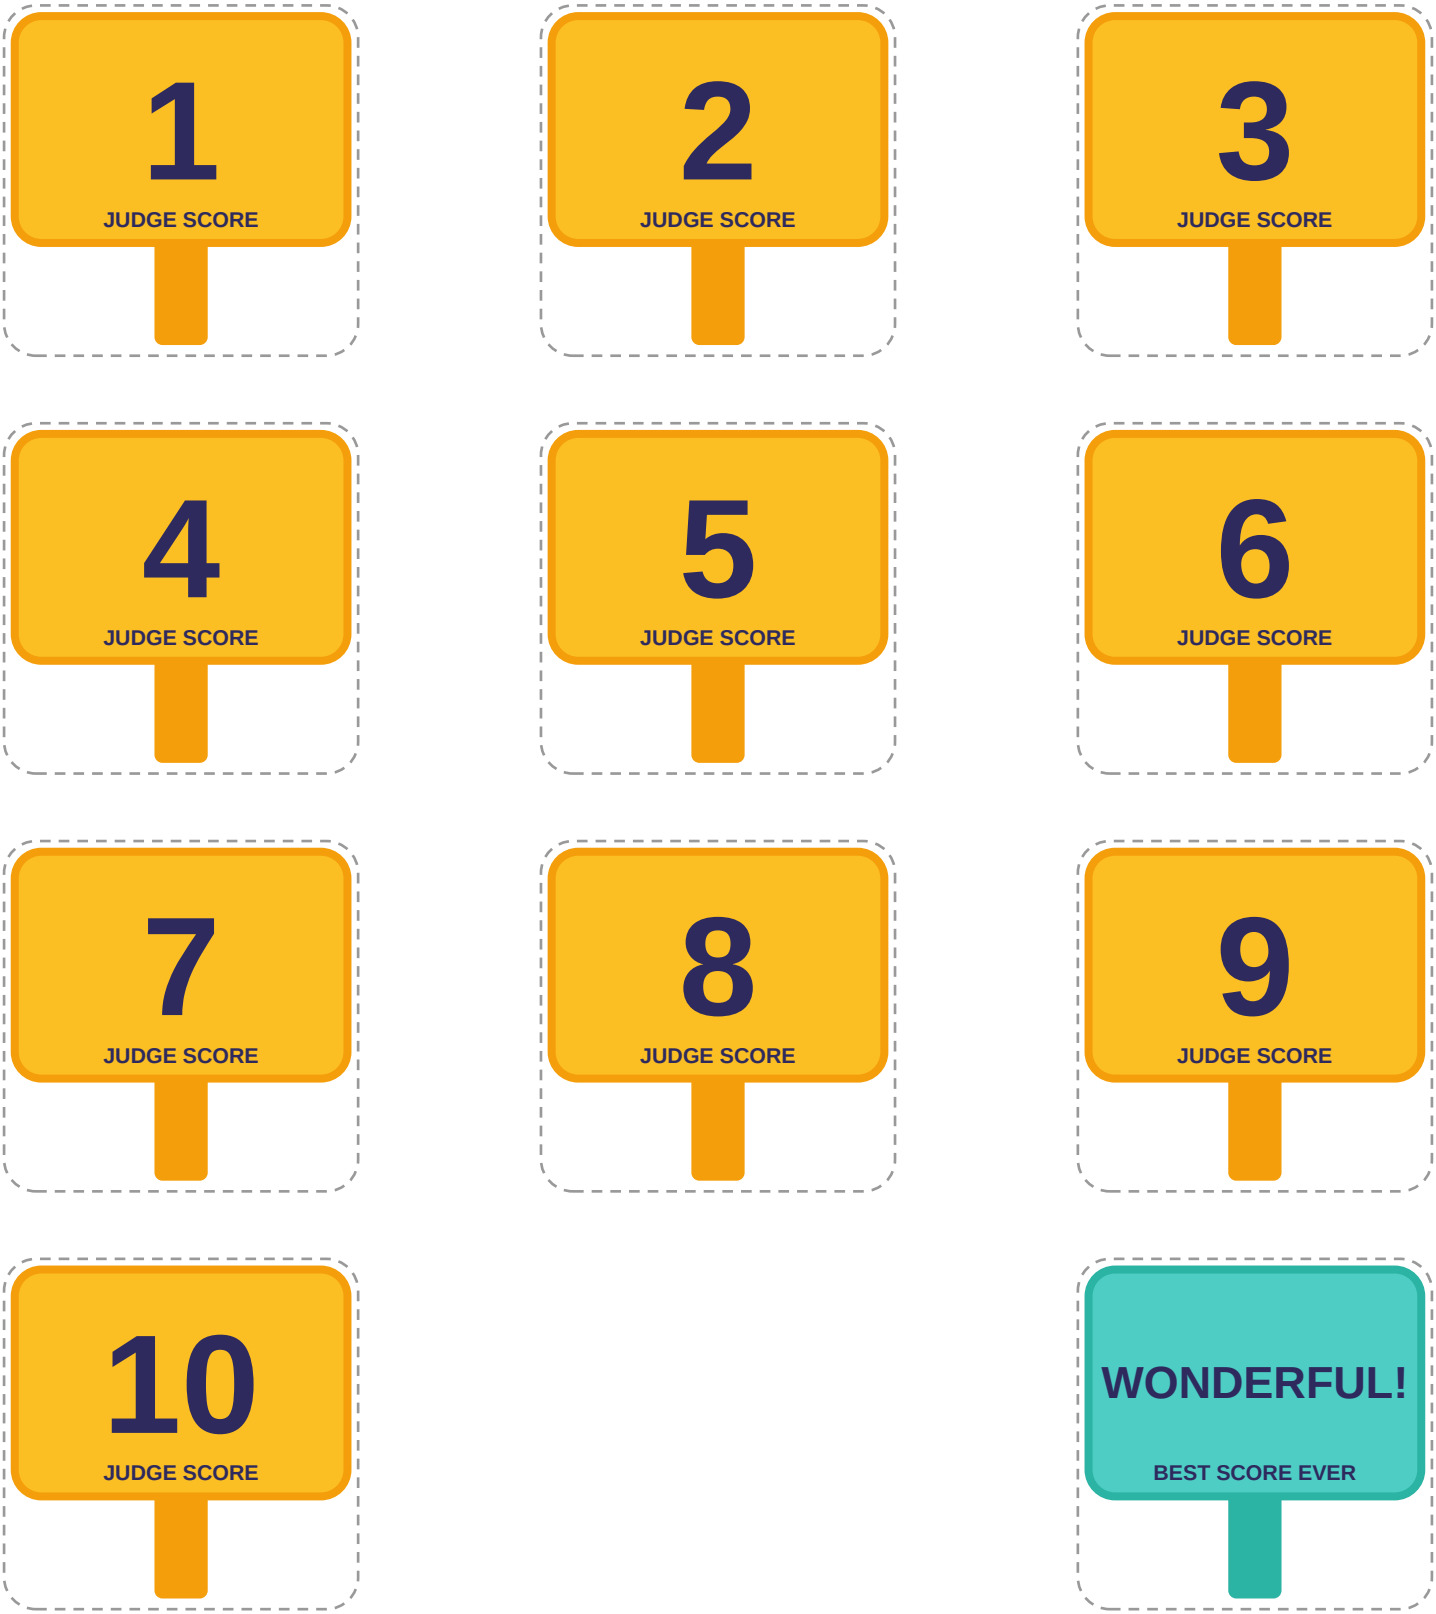
Judge Paddles — GE7 U5C17 The Big Night: The Dance

Print, cut along the dashed lines, glue each board onto thin cardboard (or a ruler), and hold up to score!



Tip: laminate the paddles and they survive many competitions. Keep the WONDERFUL! paddle for the judge who wants to be funny.

Role Cards — one host, two contestants, three or more judges

Hand each role card to a student. Rotate roles every round so everyone is on stage.

HOST — you run the show!

Running order (read it out loud, step by step):

1. Welcome everyone: “Welcome to the Big Night!”
2. Draw a challenge card and announce it: “The challenge is: [juggling]!”
3. Say “Ready, steady, go!” and start the 10-second contest.
4. Lead the class question: “Who is better at [juggling], [A] or [B]?”
5. Ask the judges: “Judges, your scores, please!”
6. Count the scores aloud and announce the winner.
7. Lead the class answer: “[A] is better at [juggling] than [B].
[B] is worse at [juggling] than [A].”
8. Everyone cheers together: “WONDERFUL!”
9. Say “Thank you! Next round!” — and swap roles.

If you forget a step, the class can help you — the show must go on!

CONTESTANT 1

Do the challenge with all your energy!

Listen to the class question.

Bow and say “Thank you!” at the end.

CONTESTANT 2

Do the challenge with all your energy!

Listen to the class question.

Bow and say “Thank you!” at the end.

JUDGE 1

Watch the contest carefully.

Hold up your paddle — say the score!

JUDGE 2

Watch the contest carefully.

Hold up your paddle — say the score!

JUDGE 3

Watch the contest carefully.

Hold up your paddle — say the score!

Small group? Everyone gets a role every round. Big class? Run several shows at once with extra judges.